f. That is why I love it so much. → _____
g. Thank you for listening! → _____

4. Pick the best opening

Which is the strongest opening for a talk about a plant? Circle one.

a. A. Um, so, this is a plant.
b. B. Did you know my plant grew from a tiny mango seed?
c. C. Plant.
d. D. I am going to talk now.

5. New situation: giving feedback

Your friend Aarav finished his talk, but he spoke very quietly. What is the kindest, most helpful feedback? Circle one.

a. A. That was bad.
b. B. I liked your opening question! Next time, could you speak a bit louder so everyone can hear?
c. C. Nothing — just stay quiet.
d. D. You should talk like me.

6. My plan

Plan your project: Give a one-minute show-and-tell talk about a favourite object, with a strong opening, three details and a clear closing. Sketch it and list what each part will do.

7. Checklist

Tick each one when your project does it.

a. ☐ A real object you can hold up (with a grown-up's OK)
b. ☐ An opening question or surprise
c. ☐ Three details: looks like, came from, why special
d. ☐ At least three describing words and one because
e. ☐ A clear closing with thank you
f. ☐ About one minute, looking up at the listeners

8. Two stars and a wish

Ask a friend to test your project. Write two things they liked and one idea to improve it.
