b. B. Take a breath, look at your speech map, and carry on.
c. C. Start the whole speech again from the beginning.
d. D. Talk very fast so no one notices.

5. New situation: feedback for Zoya

Zoya’s speech was about why she loves dance. She had a great opening but only one point. Which feedback is most helpful? Circle one.

a. A. Your speech was boring.
b. B. Your opening question made me want to listen! Next time, could you add two more reasons why you love dance?
c. C. Good.
d. D. You should choose cricket instead.

6. My plan

Plan your project: Plan, practise and deliver a 1–2 minute speech on a topic you love, using a speech map with an opening, three points with examples and a closing. Sketch it and list what each part will do.

7. Checklist

Tick each one when your project does it.

a. ☐ A topic you care about (my hero, a fun day, why I love...)
b. ☐ A speech map with key words
c. ☐ An opening question or surprise
d. ☐ Three main points, each with an example
e. ☐ Order words, describing words and because
f. ☐ A clear closing; 1–2 minutes; looking up at the audience

8. Two stars and a wish

Ask a friend to test your project. Write two things they liked and one idea to improve it.

How did it go? Colour a face: 😀 I can do it · 🙂 Nearly there · 🤔 I need help

☐ I can plan a speech with an opening, three points with examples and a closing.
☐ I can practise and improve my speech.
☐ I can deliver a 1–2 minute speech clearly and confidently.
☐ I can give and use kind, specific feedback.
